

1989-1990

The Delaware State Legislature introduces and passes legislation to create a statewide paramedic system which was signed by then Governor Castle

1990

Sussex County hires Bill Stevenson and develops what was then called Sussex County Paramedics

1991

Sussex County Paramedics begins Advanced Life Support

1992

SCEMS places Station 105 in service

1995

Sussex County EMS Hazardous Materials Medical Response Team placed in service

2000

Station 106 dedicated during EMS Week

2001
Sussex County EMS celebrates
10 years of service

2005
The 1st class of SCEMS students graduate from Delaware Technical and Community College

2005
Sussex County celebrates the opening of Medic 107 and Troop
5 at the Adams-Ewing Public Safety Complex

2005 and 2006
Sussex County EMS competes in the JEMS Games, capturing a Gold Medal in 2005 and Silver in 2006

2006
SCEMS members from the first class and original ten medics honored by the Sussex County Council during "Sussex County EMS Appreciation Day"

2006
Today Sussex County EMS has become a recognized national leader in pre-hospital care with over 100 employees and eight paramedic units